

Trinity Women Graduates formerly known as Dublin University Women Graduates Association (DUWGA) was established in 1922 to enable women graduates keep in touch with Trinity, with each other, and with women graduates all over the world.

Membership of Trinity Women Graduates is open to women graduates of any recognised University.

What we do

- Organise a variety of social and cultural events and outings
- Organise lectures with guest speakers during the year
- Support the Trinity Access Programme (TAP) with an annual bursary
- Operate a Bursary Fund which provides a small grant to a number of women graduates
- Is a member of National Women's Council of Ireland (NWCi)
- Organise a national public speaking competition for girls under 15

Members of Trinity Women Graduates are also part of a global network of women university graduates including: the Irish Federation of Women graduates (IrFUW), Graduate Women International (GWI formerly the IFUW) and University Women of Europe (UWE).

For further information on Trinity Women Graduates and membership please contact us at Info@trinitywomensgraduates.ie or find us on social media @trinwomgrad